TRAVEL TIPS

- The Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail is open to visitors throughout the year and is designed to explore at your own pace – you are welcome to start and finish wherever you like. To ensure a positive experience, please review the hours of operation for each business listed in this brochure and note when it is best to call ahead before arriving.
- High season varies per business but is typically June - Nov. Seasonality of key products is listed below:
  - Blueberries are normally at their best from July to Aug.
  - Cranberries are often available from mid-Oct. to early Dec.
  - Pumpkin patches are usually open from late Sept. to late Oct.
- The working farms along this trail provide some of the most unique and personalized experiences. As a visitor, we ask that you respect the invitation to enter each property and be cautious around farm animals and equipment. Kids should not play unsupervised and you should be prepared to follow any site-specific rules.
- Interested in a guided tour to experience the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail? South Coast Tours offers day tours along the entire trail. Learn more at SouthCoastTours.net.
- Your experience along the Wild Rivers Coast Food Trail should not end when you leave the area. We encourage you to bring a taste of your journey back home to share with friends and family as a reminder of the bounty available along Oregon’s Wild Rivers Coast.

BERRY BYWAY ITINERARY
PORT ORFORD TO BANDON

Ramble along the berry trail from Port Orford to Bandon for a bucketful of sweet tastes.

A morning start at Port Orford Community Co-op yields a delightful harvest of picnic provisions, including organic meat, fresh catch and seasonal produce like sun-kissed, handpicked strawberries, raspberries and blackberries from Valley Flora Farm. Head north on U.S. 101 to Peters Cranberries farm stand in Stines for fresh, tart, sustainably grown cranberries as well as jams and berry vinegars to take home.

Plan on a late breakfast at The Spoon in Langlois with The Company’s house-roasted local mocha will fuel your adventure. The Spoon

SEAFOOD SEARCH ITINERARY
BROOKINGS TO GOLD BEACH

This culinary treasure trek starts with made-from-scratch bagels and steaming coffee at First Rise Baking Company in Brookings.

Thus well provisioned, head out for a two-hour exploration by kayak with South Coast Tours. Fish from the boat, forage for mussels and edible seaweeds, or just enjoy bird watching in the refreshing sea breeze. Post-paddle lunch options include fresh-caught rockfish, crab and clams at Brookings’ Catalyst Seafood Restaurant and Lounge or the Fishermen’s Paninis-melt with a side of garlic fries at Baranace Bistro in Gold Beach. The Arch Rock Brewing Company tastings room pours seaside sips of lager, pales and porters and growlers to go. Don’t miss Fishermen Direct Seafood with freshly canned albacore tuna and salmon to take home.

In Port Orford, visit the working waterfront to see the unique daily dock lifting boats in and out of the water by crane. Fish from the beach in the pretty cove around Battle Rock or watch for great grey whales.

Net your dinner from the dock at Tony’s Crab Shack in Bandon. They’ll cook your catch or sell you a variety of fresh items like the wild salmon burger, Diver’s Catch pasta or grilled oysters.

TIMELESS BEAUTY ITINERARY
REEDSPORT TO BROOKINGS

This dreamy drive passes through some of the South Coast’s most stunning landscapes.

From the Umpqua River Scenic Byway catch a glimpse of majestic Roosevelt elk at the Dean Creek Elk Viewing Area followed by a hearty breakfast at Reedsport’s Harbor Light Restaurant with offerings of Salmon Harbor Browns and Country Fried Steak. Further south in Winchester Bay, find hot fresh breads, bagels and cinnamon rolls along with homemade jams at Sourdough Bakery. Stroll the lush formal gardens at Shore Acres State Park and view dramatic surf crashing below the soaring cliffline. The trails in Cape Arago State Park provide breathtaking beauty of hidden coves and seacliffs along the headland. Stop at Charleston’s Bayside Coffee Shop for organic fair trade coffee and tea and find refreshing smoothies made from house-made nut milks and fresh berries at Coos Bay’s Sourdough Bakery.

Book a shoreside table at Redfish in Port Orford for a lunch of ocean-fresh seafood, salads and burgers along with gorgeous views of Battle Rock from the sun-drenched deck.

Followed by a hearty breakfast at Redfish in Port Orford, visit the working waterfront to see the unique daily dock lifting boats in and out of the water by crane. Fish from the beach in the pretty cove around Battle Rock or watch for great grey whales.
